

JAPAN LAND JOURNEYS 2026

Including luxury Mekong River Cruising

Japan

Imbued with a unique culture, unmistakable identity and exquisite beauty, Japan is an enthralling experience in every sense. From centuries-old fishing villages and majestic feudal castles to neon-lit skylines and ultra-modern innovations, Japan reveals a land of breathtaking contrasts, where the past, present and future effortlessly collide.

Well-preserved cultural heritage and deeply-rooted traditions across this 'Land of the Rising Sun' provide countless opportunities to connect with the nation's compelling past, while its frenetic megacities and next-gen technologies immerse you in an exhilarating, futuristic world.

Comprised of a stunning archipelago in Northeast Asia, Japan's centrally-positioned Honshu Island is home to much of the country's main cities and important attractions, welcoming with an endearing warmth.

Japan's political centre for centuries, Tokyo today presents a fast-paced megacity ranked as the planet's most populated. Amid this mesmerising capital, the world's tallest tower and busiest pedestrian crossing rubs shoulders with traditional icons and ancient Shinto shrines. Heading southwest, mountainous Hakone is popular for its hot springs and spectacular vistas of Mount Fuji, an active volcano and national symbol best appreciated on a scenic lake cruise.

As Japan's imperial capital for over a millennia, Kyoto boasts the nation's highest concentration of cultural and architectural treasures. Surrounded by rural heartlands, this well-preserved ancient city delivers the quintessential face of old Japan and some of its most authentic cultural experiences. Nearby Nara makes an enthralling day trip for its significant historical assets.

Another former imperial capital, Osaka dazzles with a buzzing street life and diverse attractions, but renowned as 'the nation's kitchen' and Japan's culinary mecca, food is the biggest drawcard in this vibrant metropolis. Further westwards on Honshu, Hiroshima, eternally synonymous for its tragic wartime history and off-shore, the small, pretty island of Miyajima are additional, must-see destinations.
